Rob Georg Talks About A Cowboys Life In "Dust"

BY THE WIDOWS PEAK BANDIT ( LEAVE A COMMENT )

Rob Georg continues to provide the world with country how-to-guides in his music.

You know what I love about Rob Georg as an artist? He's fearless, he sings with great energy, and most importantly, he is unapologetically country. In "Dust," his latest single, Georg shines, gifting the world with an adrenaline-filled effort that never lets up in authenticity.

Over this guitar-heavy/trunk-rattling instrumental, Rob outlines everything that goes into being a cowboy: That includes working until the sun comes up, fixing broken items and risking injury dealing with animals around the ranch. Personally, I love everything from the sturdy chorus to the honest lyrical content Georg was able to deliver for us throughout the song. I also enjoy how Georg glides his way to the finish line utilizing a pretty brawny vocal performance. Well done, Cowboy!

Make sure you check out Rob Georg's "Dust" at the top of the page!

#VCU might play #Duke in the second round of the tournament... Unless Eric Maynor can do some Benjamin Button s**t, they should get washed. #SelectionSunday

"I just missed my check-up, but it checked up" doesn't sound as fluent as "I just missed my workout, but it worked out." Help me out, @chancetherapper,
